

NJ should be allowed to have as strict of a "Do Not Call" policy as the NJ voting community allow. My husband and I love sitting through dinner without the phone ringing from telemarketers. The call rate in my home has dropped almost 95%. I have peace and I love it. Let NJ keep their "Do Not Call" law.